

HONEY, I'M SORRY:

For not always being the kind of husband I should be to you.

For not giving you
the attention you deserve.

For being too caught up in my own world
instead of "our" world.

For demanding too much and not giving enough.

For not loving you like I should.

Please forgive me.

With your love, your support,
your patience and your prayers,
I will strive to be the kind of HUSBAND
God expects me to be.

HONEY, I'M SORRY:

For not always being the kind of wife I should be to you.

For not always appreciating
all that you do.

For not always being the lover I know you need.

For not always believing in your hopes and dreams.

For not loving you like I should.

Please forgive me.

With your love, your support,
your patience and your prayers,
I will strive to be the kind of WIFE
God expects me to be.
